MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Our club ties to Vanderbilt are evident in our name and 130+ year history of association with the university and Medical Center. We have accessed the truly world-class talent and expertise at Vanderbilt for our VWC Lectures each year in addition to outside experts in different fields here in Nashville. We have heard from doctors, scientists, legal scholars, sports experts, historians, writers, and many others. This is a unique opportunity that not every woman's club in the country has available to them. And if there's one thing I've learned it's that we are never too old or experienced to learn something new.

On Friday, November 15 we have yet another unique learning opportunity at our second VWC Fall Lecture. This time, however, we will be drawing from the deep well of expertise and life experience of one of our own -- VWC Life Member, Sara Plummer. Many of you may know Sara from her delicious jams that she sells at the VWC Holiday Bazaar each December. There is a lot more to Sara than fresh jam! Sara will be speaking to us about her experience as a nurse in Vietnam during the war years. Many of us have read the books The Women or Absolution about experiences of women in Vietnam. This lecture is an opportunity to hear from someone who actually was there. So please put Friday, November 15, 10:30 a.m., Green Hills Public Library on your calendars. I hope to see you there.

The mission of the Vanderbilt Woman's Club is to bring together the women of Vanderbilt University; provide an opportunity for intellectual, cultural and social activities within the community and the University; support and assist the mission of the University; and sponsor the Vanderbilt Woman's Club Stapleton/Weaver Endowed Scholarship through fundraising. The late Margaret Branscomb, wife of Chancellor Harvie Branscomb, was responsible for the major plantings of the magnolia trees on campus. The naming of the newsletter honors her.

Friday, November 15th
10:30 a.m.

at the Green Hills Library

Life member, Sara Plummer, describes her time as a nurse during the Vietnam war.

Sara Plummer can literally tell war stories. Right out of college, she was stationed in Saigon for a year as an Army nurse during the Vietnam War.

"We worked 12 hours a day, seven days a week," she says. "We got patients from the (U.S.) Embassy and soldiers helicoptered in from the battlefield. I turned 21 while I was there. It was really rough. You had a choice - either you adapted and made it through, or you had a psychological breakdown."

She joined Vanderbilt in 1970 and spent the next 35 years working in the Medical Center, two decades of which were in neurosurgery, with the last 10 years in the dialysis and renal transplant unit.

RSVP Tracy.tn.Stadnick@gmail.com

Lunch Bunch No lunch on the fourth Thursday - THANKSGIVING. Instead, after the lecture on November 15, we will lunch at First Watch, 2002 Richard Jones Road, Ste C-100.
RSVP by November 14 so we can get on the waitlist.

Lora Stevenson Obrohta (art & cards)

We will have fine art originals and prints. Garden “gifts” in the form of seeds and botanical cards. Prices range from $3-$56. We will share a set of “garden books,” which are antique bricks painted to look like classic lit favorites for porch or patio display, as a door prize for the bazaar. I had hoped to sell a few onsite, but I am not up to moving a load of bricks! Literally!

Our website is thecobaltcreatives.com and we'll continue to populate it as the bazaar date draws closer. We've just begun building the business, so we really appreciate this opportunity to find out what people enjoy! We'll offer bazaar favorites for purchase via the website after the bazaar.

Welcome

Kathleen Barnes

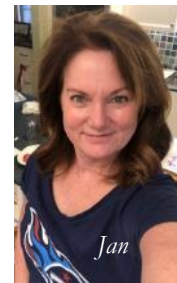

Cynthia Mercante I'm a native Tennessean who remembers when the sidewalks in downtown Nashville rolled up by 7pm. I retired from 25+ years of work with a healthcare technology planning and project management company in 2019. I'm a voracious reader and practice patience when traveling with my husband.

Miriam Mimms

Jan Read I'm retired from a 35-year career as a writer and enjoy gardening (especially native gardening), tennis, knitting, reading and cooking. While not a native Nashvillian, I have lived here since 1984. Hubby Greg Smith and I are addicted to BBC police procedurals and the NYT crossword.

The Newcomer gathering on November 3 has been postponed.

Watch your email after the holidays for the new date.

Member Spotlight

After church mission trips to Appalachia in high school, Kelly (VWC president) never imagined that she, one day, would live in Tennessee. Growing up in Fort Worth, Texas, careers and academics have taken her to live in Brussels, Belgium; Georgetown, Texas; Strasbourg, France; New Orleans, Chicago, Galveston, Texas and now Nashville. With a B.A. from Southwestern University, and an M.B.A. from Tulane, Kelly worked in the oil and banking industries and received a J.D. from DePaul University. Three children later, and a move to the gulf coast barrier island, Kelly began full-time motherhood and volunteer work including two terms on the Galveston ISD Board of Trustees.

This is Kelly's second term as VWC president, she manages the Facebook page, coordinates Community Service and has been the Newcomers' chair in the past.

Kelly likes to volunteer at Pencil, Second Harvest, and The Store. Her three kids are grown and flown and she and Ed are expecting their first grandchild in January.

Free Tai Chi Class NEW INTEREST GROUP
